WELCOME

Welcome to Henderson and Chester County, Tennessee! We are proud of our history, educational heritage and beautiful natural surroundings.

With a rich history rooted in the beginnings of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, charming downtown Henderson continues to grow and prosper. It is home to Downtown Park (a wifi hotspot), Freed-Hardeman University (a private four-year, liberal arts university), highly rated public schools, the historic Chester County Courthouse (where scenes from Walking Tall: the Buford Pusser Story were filmed), famous BBQ pits, award winning hamburger joints, bakeries and unique shops. Henderson is the county seat of Chester County and is home to a thriving arts community, which the community celebrates the third Thursdays at Arts in the Alley at Downtown Park.

The Henderson/Chester County Chamber of Commerce is dedicated to supporting our local businesses and shaping a better community. Each autumn our largest chamber-produced event, the Chester County BBQ Festival, takes over Main Street and the courthouse lawn for a celebration of our famous Chester County BBQ, art, entertainers and children's activities. We host more than 12,000 visitors during the festival.

For the sixth edition of Discover Chester County, we wanted to feature what makes our community thrive – local businesses run by driven people who are passionate about their work. In this issue, you'll find everything from castles to banks to contracting companies to go-karts. You'll meet the people behind these successful businesses and learn what they love about Chester County.

We are proud to welcome you to our home! We invite you to stay a while and come back often. It won't take long for you to find out why Chester County is a great place to live, work and play!

GOODMAN RANCH

If you're looking for the ultimate outdoor experience, look no further than Proctor Road.

"CHESTER COUNTY IS A WONDERFUL PLACE TO DO BUSINESS. WE CAN GET JUST ABOUT EVERYTHING WE NEED TO OPERATE LOCALLY."

Goodman Ranch is a multi-acre hunting outfitter located right here in Chester County. With more than 500 hooved animals at any given time, the ranch is an outdoor enthusiast's paradise.

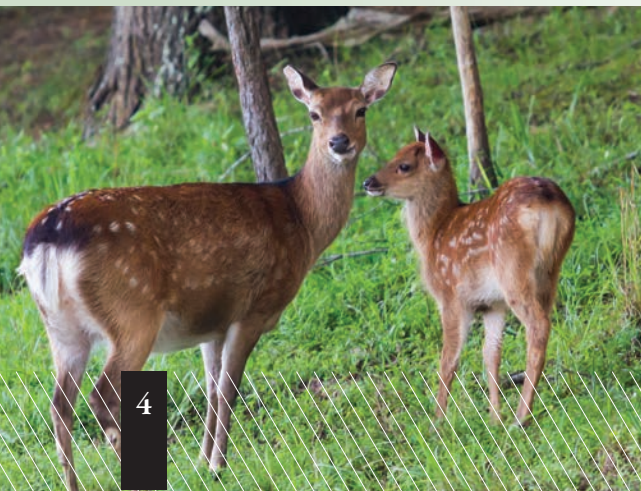

Specializing in exotic hunting expeditions, Goodman Ranch is home to a variety of animals, including aoudad sheep, axis deer, bison, blackbuck, elk, exotic rams, quail, sika deer, turkey, whitetail deer and others. The ranch offers a complete hunting experience with rustic lodging, home cooked meals and weatherproof blinds.

Although wildlife is no stranger to Chester County, Goodman Ranch offers visitors a unique wildlife experience. "The special thing about Goodman Ranch is that, even if you aren't hunting, you have several opportunities to see a variety of animals that you simply don't see in other places," said owner Mike Goodman.

Goodman, a native of Cordova, Tenn., has owned the ranch since 1992. "Chester County is a wonderful place to do business. We can get just about everything we need to operate locally. The people in our area are what make the difference. Everyone helps each other. We have a lot to be proud of in Chester County," said Goodman.

For those who just want to get away, guests can stay in the cozy lodge, hike or bike more than 25 miles of trails. They can fish in the stocked ponds. Guided tours by Goodman or the ranch manager, David Hardison, also are available and are sure to leave visitors more knowledgeable and in awe of the animals who call the ranch home.

You can visit Goodman Ranch at 770 Proctor Road, call them at 901-734-7818, or visit them online at goodmanranch.com or facebook.com/Goodman-Ranch.

One of newest businesses in Chester County, Gator Speedway, is a family owned and operated go-kart track located on Highway 200. Having just opened in July, the clay track is proving to be quite the attraction with visitors and calls from such places as Mississippi, Louisiana, Kentucky and South Carolina.

Learning as they go, the Joneses expressed their gratitude for the racers who make suggestions to improve the track. "I thank God for the racers – that they take time out to come race on this track, and if something isn't just right, they let us know so we can make improvements," said Glen.

Every Saturday night, racers from age 5 to 65 compete within age brackets for trophies. Co-owner Glen Jones Jr. explained that go-kart racing is much like NASCAR. Karts, lined up according to their speed, race a set number of laps and follow flag and light signals.

In addition to racers reaching out, the people of Chester County have also made an effort to make sure Gator Speedway is a success. "The community has really pitched in and helped," said Gator, who named several people who have donated lights, tractors, expertise and time. "Chester County is a small community, and we don't have anything else in the community like this. We've gotten more support from our community than I ever thought," said Leslie Coburn, who helps out at the track.

The speedway, named after co-owner Bertha "Gator" Jones, provides Chester County with an event in which the whole family can participate. After seeing the joy go-kart racing brought four generations of their own family, the Joneses decided to open their track to the public. "We wanted to do something for the kids of Chester County," said Gator.

With the many things that have to come together in order for Saturday night to be a success, maintaining the speedway has become something that the entire Jones family does together. Speaking of his family, Glen said, "If it weren't for these kids, I could not even attempt to make this work."

"We've gotten more support from our community than I ever thought."

HIDDEN TREASURE CASTLE PINES

When people think of Chester County, the first thing that comes to mind probably isn't knights in shining armor, kings and queens or a medieval castle complete with a moat. Castle Pines Farm – Home of Chestershire Castle is hoping to change that.

Available for events of all kinds, Castle Pines allows guests to take a step back in time. The castle provides the perfect backdrop for a wedding, birthday party, family reunion or corporate event. While there are different themed parties available (princess, Robin Hood, Highland Games, etc.), visitors are also encouraged to use their own creativity to give their event a unique touch.

Owners George Manzelmann and Teresa Hardee, who live on the grounds, say the castle is the manifestation of several years of admiration of and learning about medieval times. "It was our vision. We love learning the history. The medieval and gothic architectural design is what we enjoy visiting in Europe, and now we enjoy living in it," said Manzelmann.

In addition to the historical significance of the castle, Hardee noted how the natural beauty of Chester County provides the castle with a unique and serene setting. "It is our dream. The natural beauty of the woods paired with the architectural beauty of the castle combine to make our heaven on earth," said Hardee.

When asked why they chose Chester County to be the home of a medieval castle, Manzelmann and Hardee said Chester County actually chose them. Upon retirement, the Texas natives wanted to go "home," and Hardee, who was born and reared in Madison County, said West Tennessee was the only place that would do. "We were looking for something out in the country. When my sister's husband found this property, we knew it was perfect."

Not only has the county's natural beauty been a draw for the owners, they say that it's the people of Chester County who make it home. "The support of the community has really amazed us. People are so welcoming and friendly; Chester County is more like a family than simply a community," said Manzelmann.

Having just finished building a timber-frame pavilion, complete with a stone fireplace and kitchen, Manzelmann and Hardee are taking a break from construction. However, they plan to continue adding to their castle in two or three years. If you are interested in visiting the castle or booking an event, call Hardee at (713) 502-6786. You can

BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT

Editor's Note: We asked 25 people questions about their business and their experience in Chester County. We received replies from 20 of them, and excerpts from their answers follow. We hope to feature different businesses in Discover Chester County each year. This first spotlight includes some of those who have held ribbon cuttings during the past year and who serve on the Henderson/Chester County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

Barnes Self Storage

949 East Main Street
731-989-2224
barnes-self-storage.com

GARY & CONNIE BARNES

"We are the only self-storage facility that offers climate-controlled storage in Chester County. Because of the local National Guard and university, we offer military and student discounts. Most Chester County roots run deep with many families having lived in this area for generations. We often laugh about Gary (born in Chicago) being considered a 'foreigner' in our small town, even after 34 years – thus the statement 'He ain't from around here.' Being a worldwide traveler, his mother once told me that she couldn't believe he almost stopped the car and kissed the ground at the Tennessee line returning from a trip up North. We are happy to own a business and live in a place that we love."

Kinchen's Plumbing

4225 Highway 100
731-434-8275
731-434-8246

TROY AND AMANDA KINCHEM, OWNERS

"Kinchen's Plumbing is a family owned and operated business that offers services for all your commercial and residential plumbing needs. After growing up here and moving away, we moved back three years ago because we wanted a good place to raise a family and a good school system for the kids. Chester County seemed to be the place. We love meeting all the great people in Chester County through the business. In the future, we would like to expand to offer a few good jobs to the citizens of Henderson, as well as continue to strive to be the best and offer the best price to our customers."

The Tire Shop and Service Center

588 U.S. Highway 45
731-989-3844

TIM AND BRICIE MEHR, OWNERS

"We sell new and used tires and offer oil changes and brake work. We love being around the public and talking with people. Our favorite thing so far about running a business has been when we joined the Chamber of Commerce and had an open house in our new facility. We were just overwhelmed with the people who came out and supported us – friends, family, etc. It was exciting and fun."

Casey Realtors and Insurance

456 East Main Street

CRAIG CASEY, BROKER

"Specializing in the City of Henderson and Chester County, Casey Realtors and Insurance is a full service company. Our realtors can list and sell your house, build your house or find a rental house. We also offer all types of insurance including auto, home, life, commercial and group health. My favorite thing about running a business in Chester County is the people. Since I have lived here my whole life, I just about know every person here, and I love that. This town has been very good to me, and I love giving back."

CHICKASAW GOLF COURSE

DAVID CHASTEEN, COURSE SUPERINTENDENT AND OWNER

WHAT IS CHICKASAW GOLF COURSE?

"Chickasaw Golf Course is an 18-hole, Jack Nicklaus Signature Design golf course located in Henderson, Tenn. We welcome golfers of all ages, plus those who think they might want to learn. Whether you are a beginner, or just want to improve your game, we offer lessons from a qualified golf professional."

WHAT'S YOUR FAVORITE THING ABOUT RUNNING A BUSINESS IN CHESTER COUNTY?

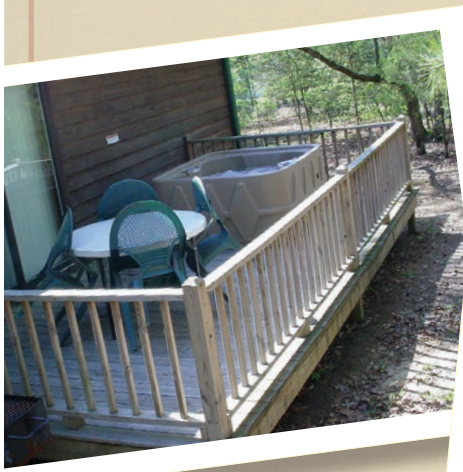

"It's definitely the people! From the volunteers I have helped me to the other business owners who have worked with me, I could not have asked for a better place to have started this business. Chester County is a great place to own a business!"

WHAT'S YOUR FAVORITE STORY ABOUT OPERATING A BUSINESS IN CHESTER COUNTY?

"I had been working at the course by myself for a week or two. The fairway grass had grown so long from neglect that it could not be mowed, so I considered burning it off (a technique used by many golf courses to remove dormant Bermuda grass.) I decided to try to burn just a small patch of wet grass, just to see how easily it would burn. Within 10 seconds, I had flames four feet tall, and I knew I was in trouble. Within 15 minutes I had burned eight acres of grass and came close to burning down the cart shed. That is how I got to know the Chester County Fire Department and the state forestry service. They still haven't let me live that down! Although more time consuming, I decided that baling the fairway grass was a safer way to get rid of it than burning it!"

Our members specialize in print and web design, social media, photography, videography, event management, research, press releases, copywriting, media relations and more.

While we realize that it's not typical for a firm like ours to be in a small town, we love being in Henderson. When people ask why our business is here, we point out that technology allows us to serve clients from anywhere. We enjoy all the benefits of a small town — including a relaxed, personal, friendly atmosphere in an environment where it's easy to make a difference. We also enjoy the diverse services that can be found here in areas ranging from healthcare to professional services to education. We really do have the best of both worlds."

Our favorite thing about running a business in Chester County is the support that we've received. People we've met have done whatever they can to help our business get off the ground. There is no better feeling than having people you've not known for very long give the great support that we've received."

Freed-Hardeman University Christian Store

158 East Main Street
731-989-6000
bookstore.fhu.edu

CLAY YOUNG, SALES MANAGER

"FHU Christian Store is on the campus of Freed Hardeman University and is owned by the university. We offer 'Faith Building Resources' including Bibles, books, curriculum materials, church supplies and gifts. What we find most gratifying is meeting the needs of those who desire books and other materials to assist in their pursuit of spirituality. We really don't view the bookstore as a business so much as we do a resource to help our neighbors. Recently, a lady came in the store looking for a book on dealing with the stress of cancer. We were able to locate two different books in our inventory system. One of the books was exactly what she wanted. Needless to say, she was thrilled. We don't always hit a homerun, but when we can make someone's life a little brighter, it makes it all worth it."

E&T CONTRACTING, LLC

E&T Contracting, LLC
3615 U.S. Highway 45 North
731-989-3680

EDWARD AND TIFFANY JONES, OWNERS

WHAT IS E&T CONTRACTING?

"E&T Contracting, LLC is comprised of two divisions. One is commercial contracting services, which offers construction management, general contracting, subcontracting and renovations to existing facilities. The other is insulation and closet shelving for residential services, which provides batt and blown insulation, as well as Rubbermaid closet shelving. We employ 18 skillful and knowledgeable individuals who help the company maintain a reputation for dependable craftsmanship and service."

HOW AND WHEN DID YOU END UP IN CHESTER COUNTY?

"We were high school sweethearts who married in 2003. In 2004 we ventured into the market of residential insulation as a side-business to each of our full-time jobs. We spent our evening hours insulating new construction homes and eventually recruited help from friends and family. By 2006, employees were being hired to manage the workload. While Edward continued working a full-time job, I handled the bookkeeping from our office. In October 2008, we took a leap of faith; Edward left his full-time job at Jones Lumber Co. to obtain a contracting license. From that point, E&T Contracting, LLC has been flourishing with each passing year. Ultimately, we strive to do business in Chester County and jump at the opportunity to bid on projects here in our hometown. We love to give back to our community, both of our services and financially, as well as sponsor and be involved in local events and organizations."

WHAT ARE YOUR FUTURE PLANS?

"We are excited to announce our recent purchase of the old Sears building in Magic Valley. It will become the future home of E&T Contracting, LLC once renovations are completed. After 10 years in business, E&T Contracting, LLC will have a location all its own."

WHAT IS EL RANCHITO'S?

El Ranchito's is an authentic Mexican restaurant. We provide customers with personal attention, excellent food and a family atmosphere. Our primary customers are the local people of Chester County, as well as people from surrounding areas like Jackson.

HOW AND WHEN DID YOU END UP OWNING A BUSINESS IN CHESTER COUNTY?

Originally from Nuevo León, Mexico, my husband and I moved here in 1995. I began working in a restaurant, washing dishes. I didn't know how to speak English, so while I worked, my friends were kind enough to teach me. Within months, we purchased El Ranchito's.

Since then, much has happened – the business has continued to grow, I have made many lifelong friendships with my customers, and I became a United States citizen. In the future, we hope to expand to a bigger building and serve more international dishes.

WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE THING ABOUT RUNNING A BUSINESS IN CHESTER COUNTY?

I love everything about being in this community! I love my customers, and I love that my work allows me to have such close contact with them. I truly get to be a part of their lives, and I am very grateful for it.

One of my favorite things about being in Chester County is the hometown feeling. I like that no one is a stranger. I like the kindness of folks. I like that this is a Christian town.

I would say my best memory involving the chamber in Chester County since I have had a business is the fashion show that they hosted for the first time this year. All the participants had a great time, and the proceeds went to the Imagination Library, which is great. We got to meet some great ladies in the community and have fun all while helping our children. GEORGE MANZELMANN AND TERESA HARDEE

“We are a 44-acre outdoor event venue, offering space for weddings, birthday parties, reunions, business events and more. The support from Chester County has been a huge blessing. Our open house hosted by the chamber of commerce was a tremendous success. So many people from the community came and were enthusiastic about what we have accomplished to date with the castle and our future plans for development. We feel Henderson really is more like a family than a town.”

TONY AND JULIE ALTMAN, OWNERS

“Chickasaw Chalet is West Tennessee's only privately owned and operated vacation cabin resort! We have five two-bedroom/one-bath vacation cabins situated on more than 12.5 acres of private land in the middle of the Chickasaw State Forest, just west of Chickasaw State Park.

Our favorite thing about owning a business in Chester County is the same thing that made me want to move here all my life: how friendly and helpful everyone is! Even if you don't know their name, you never meet a stranger here. As we visit the various shops and businesses here, everyone smiles and waves. I get comments from our guests all the time about how friendly and accommodating everyone seems to be. Our chamber of commerce has really become more dynamic over the last several years, offering a variety of opportunities for businesses to obtain training and advice, as well as offering opportunities for community involvement which makes being in business in Chester County fun and exciting!”

Sweetly Ever After

110 East Main Street

DONALD & GLENDA BAKER, OWNERS

“Sweetly Ever After, known as Henderson's only cupcake shop, is much more than just a cupcake shop! Along with offering more than 60 different flavors of cupcakes and more than 10 flavors of shaved ice, we also make specialty cakes, serve lunch specials, offer event catering and even allow rental of our cute shop for your event! The only regret I have about buying this business is that it didn't happen sooner. I love getting to meet and talk with the different people of Chester County. Our location has given us the opportunity to be very involved in community events such as Arts in the Alley and the annual barbecue festival. I am happy to be a part of that and look forward to seeing what the future holds not only for Sweetly Ever After but for the city of Henderson and Chester County.”
