WELCOME TO CHESTER COUNTY

Welcome to Henderson and Chester County, Tennessee! We are proud of our history, educational heritage and beautiful, natural surroundings.

With a rich history rooted in the beginnings of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, charming downtown Henderson continues to grow and prosper. It is home to Downtown Park (a free Wi-Fi hotspot), Freed-Hardeman University (a private, four-year liberal arts college), highly rated public schools, the historic Chester County Courthouse (where scenes from Walking Tall: The Buford Pusser Story were filmed), famous BBQ pits, award winning hamburger joints, bakeries and unique shops. Henderson is the county seat of Chester County and is home to a thriving arts community, which the community celebrates the third Thursday of each month at Arts in the Alley at Downtown Park.

The Henderson/Chester County Chamber of Commerce is dedicated to supporting our local businesses and shaping a better community. Each autumn our largest chamber-produced event, the Chester County BBQ Festival, takes place in downtown Henderson and celebrates our famous Chester County BBQ. More than 12,000 people each year enjoy art vendors, fried treats, BBQ and local talent entertainment at the free festival.

For the seventh edition of Discover Chester County, we wanted to feature what makes our community thrive – local businesses run by driven people who are passionate about their work, new connectivity initiatives and the great quality of life our community.

We are proud to welcome you to our hometown! We invite you to stay a while and come back often. It won't take long to find out why Chester County is a great place to live, work and play!

COMMUNITY BEYOND BOUNDARIES

ALTHOUGH NO ONE KNOWS FOR SURE HOW JACKS CREEK CAME TO BE NAMED JACKS CREEK, LEGEND HAS IT CONNECTED WITH A SMALL BOY, APPARENTLY NAMED JACK, WHO WENT TO THE CREEK TO GET WATER. HE EITHER DROWNED, WAS KIDNAPPED BY INDIANS OR CAME BACK WITH SOME GOOD WATER. TAKE YOUR PICK. AT ANY RATE, THE CREEK CAME TO BE CALLED JACKS CREEK, AND THE SETTLEMENT TOOK THAT NAME AS WELL.

Jacks Creek BBQ

Boundaries of the unincorporated community are hard to define. According to unofficial mayor Patsy Nobles Jones, it begins at the post office on Hwy 100 East. Strangely, that puts the community's volunteer fire and rescue station outside Jacks Creek. So, they have rented a post office box with an appropriate address. Living in Jacks Creek may be a state of mind, so if you want to say you're from Jacks Creek, feel free to do so—and get yourself a PO box.

Jacks Creek began in the early 1820s and was a part of Henderson County until 1882, when Chester County was formed. The first business opened about 1830 and a post office as early as 1837. It was discontinued in 1866 and re-established in 1874. Open today with reduced hours, it is a meeting place. "You wouldn't believe how busy this post office is," employee Beth Hurst said. It defines the community and binds it together.

Three churches: Jacks Creek Church of Christ, Beech Springs Baptist Church and the Apostolic Church are located in the community. Unity Baptist, only a few miles from the post office but with a Luray address, has also rented one of those Jacks Creek post office boxes.

No one knows the date of the first school in Jacks Creek, but East Chester High School, which included grades one through 10, was erected at the current site of Jacks Creek Elementary School in 1917. Today, the school has kindergarten through third grade classes.

Although commerce today is sparse, Jacks Creek was once a bustling community, according to a 1982 booklet. In the 1930s, it was home to seven general stores, a cotton gin, bank, two barber shops, two blacksmith shops and two hamburger joints. The community also boasted two schools and three churches. Currently, Jacks Creek is home to a barbecue café, Hurst Hot Rods (which sells parts for hot rods, classic cars and rat rods), Robison Peach Farm and Ronnie Clay's accountant office.

Another long gone feature of Jacks Creek is the airfield located southwest of the Route 22A and Jones Road intersection. The federal government leased 133 acres for 20 years for Jacks Creek Intermediate Landing Field. On the flight path between Nashville and Memphis, it was designated an emergency landing field. During World War II, the airfield was a practice site for the Army Air Force. The lease expired in 1956, and the airfield reverted to farmland.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Jacks Creek native Hubert T. McGee designed Memphis' Pink Palace, as well as the Chester County Courthouse and FHU's Old Main.
- An early Jacks Creek schoolteacher became the governor of Mississippi.
- The Hamlett-Smith House is listed in the National Register of Historic Places.
- A day-long Civil War battle was fought in Jacks Creek.
- Parachute jumps and aerobatics accompanied the 1938 opening of the Jacks Creek landing field.

Hamlett-Smith House

The hamlet (yes, pun intended) is famous for its barbecue. Jo Hilton, owner and pit boss of Jacks Creek BBQ, said, "Barbecue has been sold on this corner for at least 70 years." Unlike many Chester County barbecue establishments, hers does not cook whole hogs on an open pit. Instead, she cooks hams and shoulders in an electric cooker with smoking capabilities. Her hickory wood is from hammer handle scraps obtained locally. The quality of her product is evidenced by the rate at which she sells pork. "We went through 60 hams and shoulders during the week of July 4," she said. Other smoked items on the menu include chicken, ribs, bologna and wings.

Residents of Jacks Creek put the "commune" in community. A community club meets the second Thursday of each month with Ralph Mays as the president. On average, 40 or so show up for dinner and entertainment. Jones credits four women for holding the club together through the years: Kathy Mays, Joanne Jones, Alma Jones and Kay Robison. For years, the club has raised money by making and selling fried peach pies. The money goes to causes they support: the fire station, scholarships, Christmas gifts for nursing home residents, "because we've got folks who live there now," Jones says.

Jones calls herself the mayor because of a decades-long joke. Long-time postmaster Gary Rhodes started putting mail addressed to the mayor, police chief or any other city title in her box. Never one to miss out on a chance for some fun, she took the title, bought herself a license plate, a hat and a tee shirt. It's just for the fun, she says. "I kept the title and I wear the hat," she said. "We're just funning." That seems to be going around in Jacks Creek.

WORK GIGABIT FIBER

Downtown Henderson has Internet speeds faster than most of the country, adding to its already welcoming atmosphere for business.

FASTEST INTERNET AROUND

MANY OF HENDERSON'S NEW BUSINESSES ARE GROWING AND REACHING CUSTOMERS FASTER WITH THE USE OF A GIGABIT FIBER NETWORK PROVIDED BY AENEAS INTERNET AND TELEPHONE. FIBER OPTIC NETWORKS ARE CAPABLE OF EXTREMELY HIGH SPEEDS, REACHING MORE THAN 1,000 MEGABITS (1 GIGABIT) PER SECOND.

Written by: Tajuana Cheshier

Henderson Mayor Bobby King said city hall was one of the first locations to experience the upgrade. "We do so much business over the Internet, and now we have the speed to do our jobs faster," he said.

Aeneas, a West-Tennessee company, began offering services to Chester Countians in 1996 with the first dial-up Internet services in the county. Aeneas became a fully diversified telephone company in 2000, offering broadband Internet and voice over the Internet. Aeneas is the first to offer Gigabit Internet in the area.

Leaders are hoping the improvements will have a positive impact on business growth. "We're trying to attract more businesses to Henderson. We believe this will be great for economic development for a small town," said King.

Henderson, a town of roughly 6,300 people, has access to Internet speeds that rival, and in some cases surpass, what is available in highly populated cities. "The investment that Aeneas has made in Henderson is huge! The Internet speed available to our business and others in downtown Henderson is faster than that found not only in other small towns but also in major cities around the country. "In fact, when I shared the Aeneas announcement on Facebook, a friend of mine who works in enterprise business applications posted, 'Woah! Time out! You mean to tell me I could get better bandwidth by moving from New York City to Henderson?' His statement sums up how big this investment is for our region," said Dawn Bramblett, co-owner of Bramblett Group, a marketing, advertising and public relations firm located in downtown Henderson.

Fiber optic networks are capable of extremely high speeds, reaching more than 1,000 Megabits (1 Gigabit) per second.

WANNA START SOMETHING?

INCUBATE, COMMUNICATE AND ACCELERATE YOUR BUSINESS

Henderson offers a welcoming atmosphere for beginning, growing and maintaining a business, in addition to providing quality of life for those building careers or enjoying retirement. Investment by companies and individuals is vital, and our goal is to help business incubate as it takes root, communicate its mission and accelerate its growth.

Our community's education and workforce resources, regional and national networking opportunities, incentives and infrastructure, such as Gigabit fiber, are key to success. What is most important, though, is our community. The commitment our residents have to supporting our area and one another make this a great home for those who want to start something.

Making Henderson's public parks beautiful during any season, Henderson Park Director Dena Azevedo reaps what she sows.

Written by: Tajuana Cheshier

Dena Azevedo

RENEWED SPACES

HENDERSON PARK DIRECTOR DENA AZEVEDO TRADED IN HER DESIGNER SUITS FOR SUNSCREEN, SHORTS, HIP BOOTS AND A SUN HAT TWO YEARS AGO.

Pick any day during the week and you will find her in Henderson's Gene Record Memorial or Downtown parks giving their combined 25 acres as much loving care as she does her yard at home.

Henderson Mayor Bobby King hired Azevedo to revitalize and maintain the town's public parks. She inherited her mother's green thumb and learned to appreciate the beauty of the outdoors at an early age. It's not a coincidence that one of her first jobs was making a lawn look its best.

"When I was in middle school, one of my first jobs was mowing lawns for $5.00. I would split that with my friend, who cut grass with me. Back then, gas was .50 cents a gallon," said Azevedo with a chuckle.

Her ability to transform and nurture any outdoor space has only grown more refined with time. "My mother kept a beautiful garden," she said. "I'm an outdoors person. To have a nice yard, it takes a lot of hard work, money and a love for the outdoors."

Gene Record Memorial Park

Of course, summer is the busiest for Azevedo, as she works to keep everything neat, trimmed and watered. Her days usually begin at 6 a.m. with trimming and watering plants and flowers before peak temperatures.

"Believe it or not, there's always something to be done, something that can be trimmed," Azevedo said. Gene Record Memorial Park is home to various flowers including lilies, irises, tulips and buttercups. "The beauty of the parks really shines in the spring," she said.

Chickasaw State Park

She spends the majority of her time in Gene Record Memorial Park, the larger of the town's two public parks. When she started, Azevedo gave the public restrooms a facelift and raised money to purchase 11 new benches mounted in concrete with memorial placards. Modern Woodman donated 17 white Crape Myrtle trees, some of which line the park's walkway.

Chester County Recycling donated multi-colored glass to fill in one of the many flower and decorative beds in the park. Azevedo received a donation from the Henderson Police Department this past spring, which helped purchase a John Deere Gator. She uses it daily to transport lawn equipment and navigate the park with ease.

The $18,000 in donations covered beautification projects, which helped stretch the city's budget. "We wouldn't have been able to make as many improvements without the donations," Azevedo said.

The Downtown Park is full of colorful flowers, a raised planter, but less grass to mow. The park has wireless Internet access and is the venue for the monthly Arts in the Alley and other public events, which Azevedo attends to maintain the grounds.

"I love giving people a place to go with their family and kids to enjoy. It's rewarding to know you're giving to your town."

Gene Record Memorial Park opened in May 1993 and is named for the former mayor who worked to create it. It has a soccer field, walking trails, children's play area and pavilions. Azevedo said park usage has increased since the improvements were made. A Facebook page dedicated to the park is filled with compliments from patrons who appreciate the walking trails, play area and array of colorful blooms.

Azevedo is hoping the momentum continues because she has a few ideas for the future. "I would like to see a water fountain put in and it would be nice to have an amphitheater. I think it would bring so much to the park," she said. In the meantime, she is focused on making Henderson's parks the best they can be.

"When I first started I would have to pick up trash daily, but now people are taking pride in the parks," said Azevedo. "People are very complimentary of the park. It gives us a sense of pride and lets us know all of the hard work is worth it."

CHICKASAW

APPROVED STATE FUNDING PUTS LONG AWAITED IMPROVEMENTS AT CHICKASAW ON FAST TRACK.

Don't let renovation projects stop you from appreciating all Chickasaw State Park has to offer this fall. According to Ronald Elder, park manager, with the approval of additional state funds for capital projects, renovations to Chickasaw will begin later this year.

Approximately $2.6 million will be used to improve the campgrounds and $790,000 will be invested to reconstruct the Lake Placid bridge, which is no longer structurally sound. The project also includes remodeling eight of the park's 80-year-old cabins. The cabins will be historically accurate while maintaining modern conveniences such as central air-conditioning. Elder said renovation and construction projects will be scheduled so the work does not disturb park visitors. No official start date has been determined.

Approximately 360,000 people visit Chickasaw annually and that number could increase to 400,000 with completion of the renovations. "We really want people to come out and see the general improvements of the park," Elder said. During the holiday season, thousands flock to Chickasaw for the annual driving tour to view hand-made decorations and hand-lit luminaries along the roadways and floating on Lake Placid. And of course, the kids are there to hand their wish lists to Santa. This year's event will be held Dec. 11 through Dec. 13.

Funded and managed through a cooperation among the Works Progress Administration, the Civilian Conservation Corps and the Resettlement Administration, Chickasaw State Park began in 1934. The State of Tennessee assumed management of the park in 1939. Chickasaw has 14,383 acres of timberland and 1,435 acres for recreational use.

BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT

EDITOR'S NOTE: We asked 16 people questions about their business and their experience in Chester County. We received replies from 11 of them, and excerpts from their answers follow. We hope to feature different businesses in Discover Chester County each year. Many of those featured have held ribbon cuttings during the past year and serve on the Henderson/Chester County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

FAST PACE URGENT CARE

715 East Main Street
855-632-3281
fastpaceurgentcare.com

GRANT HART, MARKETING DIRECTOR

"Fast Pace provides treatments for a wide range of illnesses and injuries and wellness screening services. We accept most insurance plans and offer affordable self-pay prices for uninsured patients or patients with high deductible insurance plans. We hope to make health care available to everyone in the Henderson area and expand into other rural markets across the Southeast. Fast Pace held a grand opening Dec. 8, 2014. The Henderson/Chester County Chamber did an excellent job coordinating our ground-breaking ceremony, where the students and faculty of Chester County Middle School participated in a confetti group throw. Everyone had a really fun time."

CHICKASAW WAGGIN' TAILS

655 Pleasant Springs Road
731-540-4095

KIM MCFARLAND, OWNER

"I opened my business June 16, 2015, after spending several years developing my business plan. I handle all pet grooming, training and boarding. I invested in approximately 20 acres of land so I would have room to do what I want to do with the business. My first month brought me 25 great customers. I love my clients, and their owners are great! I am looking at ways to expand my boarding space without losing the just-like-home atmosphere that I have now. Soon I will offer natural oils and herbs to be used as natural preventatives for anti-fungal and anti-parasitic issues such as flea, tick, heartworm and bacterial infections."

JOHNSON LAW FIRM

126 North Church Avenue
PO Box 715
731-435-1600

JAY L. JOHNSON, ATTORNEY & OWNER

"In more than 16 years of law practice, I have worked and lived throughout the State of Tennessee — in big cities and small towns. Through all of that, I always felt a strong pull to return back to my roots and my home here in Chester County. On coming home again and getting back to the people and places here, I know I could not have found a better place to open Johnson Law Firm than in Chester County. Johnson Law Firm opened Oct. 1, 2013, and represents the interests of individuals and businesses in various civil law matters. I also assist clients in estate and business planning as well as personal injury and workers' compensation cases. I am also a professional mediator."

952 West Main Street
731-989-2418

HEATHER JACOBS, VETERINARIAN & OWNER

WHEN DID CHESTER COUNTY ANIMAL HOSPITAL OPEN?

"The very first veterinary office was opened at this same location in the late 1950s by Dr. Jordan. He retired in the late 1970s, and two veterinarians purchased the clinic. One of them was the previous owner, Dr. Bob Sumrall. We purchased the clinic in June 2014, and we are honored this location has been a part of the community for approximately 60 years. On a weekly basis, we see 50 to 100 patients."

WHO IS YOUR PRIMARY CUSTOMER? WHAT SHOULD PROSPECTIVE CUSTOMERS KNOW ABOUT YOUR BUSINESS?

"Our primary customers are the clients and pets of Chester County, though we see people from much longer distances away. We have tried to listen to the requests of clients by carrying a variety of heartworm, flea and tick medicines, as well as a complete line of Hill's dog and cat foods. The staff here has many years of experience working in animal care, and most have roots here in Chester County."

WHAT'S UNIQUE ABOUT RUNNING A BUSINESS IN CHESTER COUNTY?

"The client base and closeness of the community is wonderful. My husband grew up here in Chester County and brought his pets to this very same office building, so it is very interesting to be able to connect with some of his lifelong friends and acquaintances. We still have many connections with our Freed-Hardeman family, and we have developed many friendships and ties over the last eight years from our church, school and community activities. We hope to remodel our existing building and have plans to rebuild the large animal barn for expanded boarding and small animal use. We have purchased a therapy laser, which we are working to incorporate for arthritis cases and for faster and less invasive surgery options."

REDMON & REDMON

629 East Main Street
731-435-1745

KEVIN REDMON, FOUNDING PARTNER

"We are a Christian professional firm specializing in tax planning, preparation, bookkeeping, payroll service and IRS representation for the good people of Chester County since 1992. Our physical location in Henderson opened in 2014. We serve thousands of clients a year, and we treat them with respect, as if they were a part of our family."

MCEARL ELECTRIC

245 Record Drive
731-989-3339

JEFF & HOLLY MCEARL, PRESIDENT & VICE PRESIDENT

WHAT SERVICES DOES YOUR BUSINESS OFFER?

"We specialize in educational and healthcare facilities, hotels, manufacturing facilities and all phases of commercial and industrial electrical applications. The length of our jobs ranges from six weeks to one year. Last year we had approximately 150 jobs. We have a broad range of contractors we work with, and we do design build projects and value engineering for many of our customers."

HOW AND WHEN DID MCEARL ELECTRIC START IN CHESTER COUNTY?

"Jeff started working for an electrical company in Jackson when he graduated high school. He worked there for 14 years, and in 1999 we decided to go out on a limb and start our own company. I was working at AT&T (at that time it was South Central Bell) and keeping the books on the side. It was Jeff and one electrician wiring houses and me. We worked from our home in Chester County. After a couple of years, we began doing commercial work, and in 2007 we purchased property in the Magic Valley Industrial Park and moved our offices the former Boll Weevil Express Trucking. We currently have five people in the office and employ 30 electricians. We chose to locate our business in Chester County because we are both lifelong residents, and our children attended school here."

WHAT ARE YOUR FUTURE PLANS?

"We recently became licensed in 10 states and currently work in four other states besides Tennessee. We love that we are currently working on the Henderson Downtown Streetscape Enhancement with another local company, E&T Contracting. We are also the electrical contractor for the new Hope Barber Shull Academic Resource Center at Freed-Hardeman University. "

BUSINESS SPOTLIGHTS

CRYE-LEIKE ELITE REALTORS

969 East Main Street
731-435-1155

JOHN SWEENEY, PRINCIPAL BROKER

"I am the Principal Broker for our company, I oversee the general operations of the company, but primarily I help folks buy and/or sell property. I love working in real estate. For me it's a very rewarding career to work with people who are in some type of transition. One of my favorite closings was for a sweet lady in Henderson, who was buying her first home after renting for years. Her excitement was contagious. That makes what I do very worthwhile."

1314 US Highway 45
Suite H
731-512-0302

PAYTON REDDEN, OWNER & PHYSICAL THERAPIST

HOW AND WHEN DID REDDEN THERAPY START IN CHESTER COUNTY?

"I started Redden Total Therapy of Henderson in March 2015 to bring a new standard to the physical therapy options in my hometown. I wanted to help give back to a community that has provided so many opportunities for me. We average 120 visits currently but have potential growth to treat 400 visits monthly. We are the only physical therapy clinic in Chester County to offer certified manual therapy perspective. In sports medicine, we help athletes return to play status and improve sports performance."

WHAT'S YOUR FAVORITE STORY ABOUT OPERATING A BUSINESS IN CHESTER COUNTY?

"We have only been open three months, but our open house was a huge success thanks to the chamber. The opportunity to meet and greet so many people who came to support our business was largely credited to them. We felt accepted in the community from the first day of business."

WHAT ARE YOUR FUTURE PLANS?

"We hope to continue to grow our facility to meet the needs of the patients we see daily. We have plans to begin a speed and agility camp for youth to improve overall athletic performance in the fall. We hope to work with the local schools in the future to provide sports medicine and rehab options for their players."

CHESTER COUNTY BANK

Chester County Bank, “the bank that brought progress to Chester County,” is committed to progress and communication with the people we serve. We are proud to offer Telebank (731-983-0909), online banking, and bill paying to accommodate the banking needs of our community at (www.chestercountybank.com). CCB offers ATM services at the Main Branch and in Miller’s Big Star. We continually strive to serve and meet the needs of CCB customers for the new millennium.
